Additional names of those buried in Beckley Cemetery. Taken from a list kept by Mr. Lotan Porter of the burials from 1760 to 1866. It is said that the deed of this burying-ground was given in such a way that no one outside of the school district could be buried there and that a few years ago a man was brought there from Newington for burial, and the friends were obliged to take him away. The deed must be in Wethersfield town records.

In the copy of inscriptions sent you there is a name of Joseph Deming. This list has Ensign Jacob Deming, d. July 29, 1791 in 78th year. I am inclined to think this is correct, as the wife of Jacob is buried near by. It would

would be well to correct that, if possible, before printing

Also in this list date of Mrs. Hephzibah Deming's death is Mar. 18, 1833. As Lotan Porter was living at the time, this must be the correct date. P.S. Since writing the above, I have seen enough to make me think Lotan Porter has made several mistakes, and as those who copied the monuments were quite careful, it may be as well to let them stand as written.
